

Children's Bookmark Contest

All Together Now | Ages 3-17

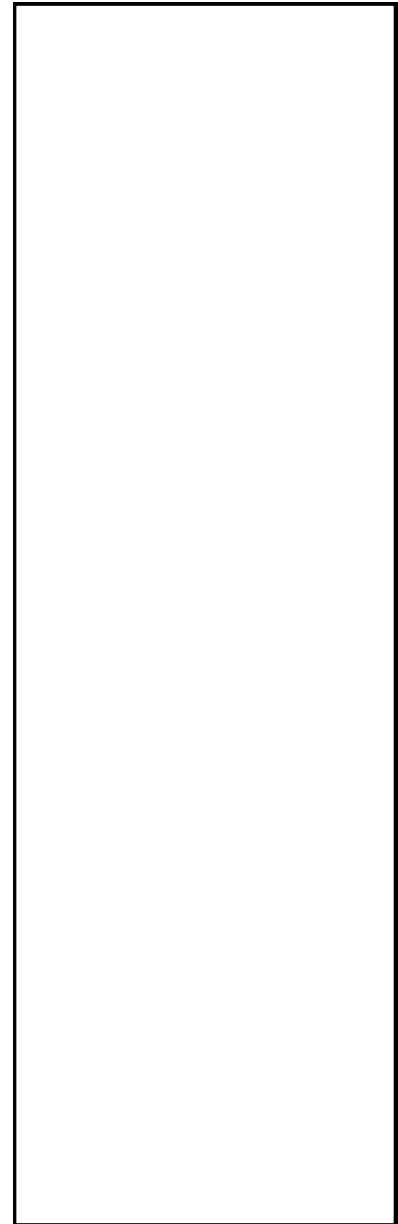

To celebrate Children's Book Week (May 1-7, 2023), DTDL is having its 11th children's bookmark design contest. This year, all designs should reflect our summer theme, All Together Now. Your bookmark could be about friendship, community, helping others, kindness, or whatever else inspires your imagination. Fill in the bookmark space below with an original design and turn it in to the library's Youth Desk by May 14. All entries will be displayed in the library during the month of June and the winning bookmark in each age group will be printed and distributed at the library this summer.

New for 2023: The contest has been expanded to include ages 13-17!

Contest Rules:

Design your bookmark in the space below.

- Each entry must be the original work of one child; one submission per child.
- Designs may be horizontal or vertical. Use the bookmark space provided on this entry form and turn in the whole form intact.
- Any 2D art medium may be used (crayons, markers, colored pencils, etc.). Please no computer generated images or 3D materials (glitter, glued items, etc.).
- Words and numbers may be included in the design, however, please do not put your name on the bookmark.
- Be creative! Please do not use copyrighted art, logos, etc.
- The contest runs until May 14 and is open to children ages 3-17. All entries are due by 4 pm on May 14. Return your entry to the library's Youth Services desk.
- Winners will be selected by library staff in three age groups: 3-7, 8-11 and 12-17. Winners will be notified by phone by May 24. The winning bookmarks will be printed and distributed at the library starting in June. Each winner will receive a certificate and book prize pack.
